Mr. & Mrs. Santa To Arrive Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus will arrive in Grayling, Friday afternoon at two o'clock. A small parade planned which will start at the City Hall and proceed North on Cedar street, turn West on Ogemaw to Broadway, back South to Michigan avenue and East on Michigan to the City Hall. Santa is to have some goodies for the children. The Christmas decorations in the business district have been started. The light poles are decorated with lights. The lights on the poles will be installed by Friday and also a big tree at the West end of Michigan Avenue.

A special thanks to the city employees and members of the fire department who assisted in making the strings of lights. It should be noted that four men one hour to make each string so many man hours were involved.

The business people are asked to have their windows decorated in the holiday motif as soon as possible. Those on Cedar Street have been called upon personally to decorate the decorating fund. Those who wish to do so please contact Bob Aschenbrenner or Vera Gould.

The Grayling City Council, at a recent meeting, voted the sum of five dollars to be given in prizes for the best Christmas decorations in residential Grayling. There are to be four awards in the amounts of $20.00, $15.00, $10.00 and $5.00. The sisters of Grayling St. Mary's school, Sister M. Ruth Bernard, school teacher for thirty years, is going to make the final connection which will set the trees aglow with color and light. The ceremony will take place at 6:30 p.m.

AN EDITORIAL

This article seems almost a redundancy in face of the thousands of words and pictures published by the metropolitan daily newspapers and the millions of words sent out over the air by the nation's television and radio networks. However, the vicious crime that occurred last Friday and shocked this nation and the world should not be ignored by the weekly press of the nation.

Not only do weekly newspaper editors owe to their subscribers mention of the assassination of such a popular figure as our late President but over the years, researchers and scholars looking through the bound volumes of the nation's press will want to know the reactions throughout the country to this horrible event.

In Crawford County that Friday afternoon, it was raining and was cloudy and dreary when the word was first flashed shortly after the noon hour. Here, as all over the United States and all over the world, the first feeling was one of almost numbness that you were hearing words that were not real. Then in a few moments the horror, the revulsion to an act of such vicious magnitude began to get home to one. Quickly, the American flag at the Post Office, the Court House and elsewhere dropped to half staff. Then flags at half staff began to appear before the business houses. There was no panic, no noisy demonstration. People began to talk at last realize their loss as well as the loss to the entire world.

Hail and farewell, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States. Hail and Godspeed to Lyndon Baines Johnson, 36th President of the United States.

Frederic Plans Yule Lighting Ceremonies

On Monday evening, December 2nd, the new Frederic public park and children's playground will be the scene of the lighting of five Christmas trees and a Christmas nativity group. Mrs. Bessie O'Dell, school teacher for thirty years, is going to make the final connection which will set the trees aglow with color and light. The ceremony will take place at 6:30 p.m.

Leo Post, captain of the Frederic Volunteer Fire Department, is in charge of setting up the event, and he is being assisted by Ernest Barber and Lee Weaver. The park, which was inaugurated last summer, has been leveled ready for equipment, and new grass has sprung up over the whole area. The Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary has purchased a new flagpole for the park, and the Frederic Hobby Club will put playground equipment on the grounds, all to be installed next spring. The Ladies Auxiliary and the Townships Board purchased the lights which will dress the Christmas trees for next week's lighting, which will remain throughout the holiday season.

Following the lighting ceremony, there will be a reception for the whole community in honor of Mrs. O'Dell, the affair to be held at the Frederic Town Hall. The Ladies Auxiliary will be serving Christmas cake and coffee.

Mrs. Bessie O'Dell was born in 1887 at Coleman, Michigan. She went to school 8 years at Coleman, then attended the Michigan School for the Blind at Lansing, from which she graduated in 1908. Mrs. O'Dell had only partial sight since birth. From Lansing she attended Midland County Normal school for one year, which allowed her to teach along with attending Mt. Pleasant Normal, now Central Michigan University, each summer. Between 1909 and 1923 Mrs. O'Dell taught in Midland County for 11 years. She then moved to Frederic, in Crawford County. In 1924 she again attended Mt. Pleasant Normal and received her Life Certificate. The fall of 1924 she began teaching in Frederic, teaching a total of 17 years in the Frederic School, with some breaks in continuity during which she taught one year in Ogemaw County and one year in South Branch Township, Crawford County. Making a total of 30 years. During this time extension courses kept her up on present-day methods of teaching. She is now retired with an annuity for the remainder of her life.

Fire Destroys Unit At AuSable Motel

As yet an undetermined amount of damage was done to a double unit at the AuSable Motel on I-75 Business Loop in Grayling last Saturday morning by fire. The unit had been checked out to a hunter who after entering the unit, left to go hunting.

Owner Steven F. "Pat" Kahoun smelled smoke and after checking the many electric motors at the motel began a check of the units. Fire was discovered in the first one inspected. It is believed that the blaze was caused by a spark from a cigarette or cigar.

Telephones at the motel were inoperable at the time due to cable trouble and a delay occurred in the calling of the Grayling Fire Department. The unit and its furnishings were completely destroyed. Virgil "Jack" Wade and Donald Denton have contracted to rebuild the unit and are now at work on it. The Kahouns will soon order complete new furnishings.

Cederberg Urges Early Action On Prayer Amendment

Congressman Elford A. Cederberg, co-sponsor of legislation for a Constitutional amendment to permit prayer and Bible reading in public schools, reports he has received an encouraging report from the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee to which the proposals were referred.

In response to Congressman Cederberg's plea for early action, the Judiciary Committee Chairman stated that "the Committee staff has been ordered to make a complete study of the matter and a portion of this study is already completed."

A Supreme Court decision banning prayer and Bible reading in the public schools prompted Congressman and others to propose a Constitutional amendment which reads as follows:

"SECTION 1. Nothing in this Constitution shall be deemed to prohibit the offering, reading from, or listening to prayers or biblical scriptures, if participation therein is a voluntary basis, in any governmental or public school, institution or place."

"SECTION 2. Nothing in this Constitution shall be deemed to prohibit making reference to belief in, reliance upon, or invoking the aid of God or a Supreme Being in any governmental or public document, proceeding, activity, ceremony, school, institution, or place, or upon any coinage, currency, or obligation of the United States."

Enlarge Lake In County

A project of the Fish Division of the Department of Conservation now under way on the Crawford-Oscoda County line is the construction of a dam to enlarge Pickering Lake to 100 acres in size with a maximum depth of 28 feet. The waters of the Middle Branch of Big Creek in Lovells Township, east of Lovells, will feed the new lake, which the Fish Division plans to use for the purpose of raising rainbow trout. Management of the new lake, which is expected to be completed next July, but will be allowed to fill naturally with fall rains, will be under District Supervisor Buddy Jacobs of the Fish Division, Mio.

Construction of the "downstream" barrier above the pond, to prevent warm water fish from entering the new lake, and the dam at the lower end impounding the waters which will cover the present Pickering Lake to the depth of one foot, has been contracted to Don McDonald of Leroy. This project is part of the recent APW grant to Crawford County, with matching funds from the State. Eighty percent local labor, excluding technical aid, is used on these APW projects.

Charlevoix's stock is boosted by JV players who sport a two-year undefeated string. Certain starters are Don Winnell, Ken Parrish, Dave Smith and Del Terrill.

Bigger Auto Population In County

(Special to the Avalanche) — NEW YORK — The effect of the automobile-buying spree of the last two years is clearly visible in Crawford County.

It is to be seen in the rise in the local automobile population and in the number of shiny late-model cars on the road.

Latest published figures show that there are now more cars in operation in the county, per 100 families, than there are in most sections of the United States.

As of the beginning of this year, with some 1,970 passenger cars registered in Crawford County, there were 136 of them for every 100 families.

This compares favorably with the ratio in the rest of the United States, where the number of cars per 100 families is 118. In the East North Central States it is 120 per 100.

The figures are based on a consumer markets study, taking in every part of the country, made by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

Its overall findings show, as would be expected, that there is a close relationship between income and car ownership. In the more prosperous areas there are more cars per family. The upsurge in Crawford County has resulted in a two-year rise of 4.2 percent in the number of passenger cars in use. The total has climbed from 1,890 in 1961 to approximately 1,970 at the start of this year, according to the SRDS figures.

The difference represents the net increase in the number of cars, after allowing for the number that were scrapped. The scrappage has been high lately. The industry reports that nearly five million cars have been junked in the United States in the past year alone.

This has been an important factor in the present auto boom. Another has been the trend, in more and more families, to two-car ownership.

The figures indicate that there are now 42 million families in the country with more than one car. That is eight times as many multiple-car owners as in 1949.

What has caused this rise? A number of things have contributed to it. Among them have been the growth of the suburbs, bringing the need for more transportation, the sharp rise in the number of car and car ownership. In the more prosperous areas there are more

MSU Plans Effort To Provide Quality Education For Students With Ability

"MONEY-TALKS"

An admirable effort to provide quality education to persons who most likely could not get it on their own is under way at Michigan State University.

With little fanfare, University officials found 23 young men this fall who had the scholarship ability but no monetary means to attend college.

All 23, from five Michigan high schools, are now studying and working at the East Lansing institution.

The rather unique program which got these 23 into MSU is known as "Operation Ethyl." University officials said this name was selected to denote "an educational additive."

Funds for the expenses incurred in attending college were derived because a number of MSU educators decided to contribute earnings from public speaking appearances to a special fund. These monies were earmarked for use by talented youngsters who don't have the money needed to attend college.

High school officials are called upon to find deserving students for whom college attendance is financially impossible.

Each of the students must earn money for the customary advance deposits on dorm and tuition fees and be willing to borrow and work to help put himself through college.

University officials said the borrowing and earning requirements of the students was aimed at insuring that the students who receive aid are sincerely interested in earning a degree.

The fund, started just two years ago, is continuing to build up as members of the MSU faculty and staff are invited to speak at public meetings, high school commencement and other occasions.

TREES COME BACK

The official state tree, the white pine, once covered much of Michigan. Historians note that this was before the coming of the white man.

Much of the forest stands were lumbered off, however, in the latter part of the last century and early this century.

The State Agriculture Department now notes that the state tree appears to be staging a comeback. A recent aerial survey showed stands of more than 1.2 million acres of white pine concentrated in Chippewa and Mackinac counties. Other stands are sparse throughout the state but total about a quarter million acres, department officials said.

AUTO DANGERS

Children and windows on "fully automatic" automobiles can be a dangerous mixture, State Health Commissioner Albert E. Heustis warns.

Several recent incidents, one of which resulted in a death, pointed up the danger in a child using an automobile for a plaything.

"Children should never be left alone in an automobile under any conditions," Heustis said. "A car with automatic windows particularly is a booby-trap."

The power of automatic windows exerts up to 50 pounds pressure. This is enough to strangle a child easily, Heustis said.

"In standard models, the windows work only when the ignition key is on, so removing the keys eliminates the danger," he said. "In most station wagons with automatic tailgate windows, however, the ignition key is not required. The windows can become a blunt guillotine for a child."

Heustis views the solution to this rapidly increasing problem as a matter of engineering.

"I am happy to say that the auto industry is actively engaged in trying to solve the problem," he said. "Today, however, the only answer is to keep kids out of the car when it is unattended."

NATIONAL SYMBOL

Michigan now has a tiny ambassador of good will touring the country. A Flint girl, 5-year-old Mary Lou Graves, is this year's National March of Dimes child.

Regardless of one's feelings about purpose fund campaigns, one look at the March of Dimes poster child brings a single thought: This could be my child.

Born with an open spine which was quickly corrected through surgery, Mary Lou had other problems to overcome. Water on the brain, hydrocephalus, developed but stopped. She also required an operation to overcome a severe bladder and bowel involvement.

Health and hospitalization insurance can cover many bills, but the widest imagination cannot measure the amount involved in a case such as Mary Lou's.

Through physical therapy, Mary Lou is gaining some degree of independence. She is learning to walk and next year will attend a special school for crippled children.

As the oldest of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graves, Mary Lou is her mother's helper. She can dust, dry some dishes, fold clothes and "mind" her brother and sisters.

A poster picture hardly tells the story, but Mrs. Graves, who had polio before she was two years old, puts it this way: "The March of Dimes is the greatest friend we ever had."

Civil Liberties vs. ???

Crime — every kind of crime, from muggings to purse snatching to bank robbery to juvenile depredations to murder — constantly feeds the headlines and the news reports. It vies for space and attention with the other great problems that bedevil the world we live in, all the way from wars to what to do about the tax problem. But few of us are prepared to answer the specific questions: Is crime really seriously on the increase, or is it simply being more effectively dramatized and noticed? What kind of crime is most prevalent? Who and what are responsible? What, in the view of experts, should be done to oppose and control it?

U. S. News & World Report recently devoted a lengthy feature article to matters such as these, and presented findings and possible solutions. It is a sad and ominous account. For, as the magazine puts it, "By every measure, America is on the brink of a major crisis in crime. Rise in crime far outstrips population increase. It shows across the board — in crimes against property and in vicious assaults on persons." And it is a truly national problem, in which the smaller communities and the great cities share. Actually, crime is rising faster (comparing 1962 with 1961) in towns of 25,000 to 50,000 people, where it is up 6.9 per cent, than in cities of over a million, where the rise is an even 6 per cent. Biggest increase — 10.9 per cent — is in the 500,000 to one million, population centers.

Name any crime, as U. S. News makes clear, and you'll find it prevalent. City streets are unsafe to walk on in city after city; armed robbery becomes a commonplace; the upturn in bank robberies is "sensational"; and "The rise in crime by youths spreads across the whole range of criminal offenses."

What underlies this grave situation, and what needs to be done? U. S. News reporters sought answers from the FBI and from police officials here and abroad and found general agreement on four points. In summary, they amount to this:

1. As more and more people, mostly strangers to each other, crowd into the cities each individual must be held more strictly accountable for his conduct.

2. The public at large must take more interest in and give more support to law enforcement, and to the punishment of criminals.

3. Juveniles guilty of serious crimes must pay a full penalty. They must not be treated as errant children.

4. The courts must show more interest in protecting the law abiding population from the criminal element, rather than in zealously guarding the rights and privileges of the criminals themselves. One want in this category is a major tightening of the parole and probation system. This idea is based on fact, not just theory. U. S. News says, "In cities where there is a no-nonsense attitude toward crime and criminals, and where people insist upon law enforcement, streets are relatively safe."

Meanwhile, to paraphrase an old slogan, crime marches on. According to the magazine, bank robberies have almost tripled in 6 years, embezzlements nearly doubled since 1956, robberies are up 15 per cent since 1958, and assaults soar. And last year youths under 18 were responsible for 62 per cent of all auto thefts, 51 per cent of all larcenies, 49 per cent of all burglaries, 19 per cent of all forcible rapes, and so on.

This, in capsule form, is the sorry story. An ending worth thinking about is provided by Chicago Police Superintendent Wilson: "Everybody seems to be organizing today to protect civil liberties. I would like to organize the victims of criminal assaults who have been robbed and raped in our streets."

Five persons, Miss Alma Chase of Traverse City, her mother, Mrs. Don Chase, Mrs. Philip Ackerman and two-year-old daughter Phyllis Ann and Mrs. Myrtle LaFamsee all of Traverse City, escaped serious injury Thanksgiving day when the car in which they were riding slipped off the icy road into the Manistee river near highway 76. Unable to control the car, it slid off the highway near the bridge and was partly submerged when discovered. The doors could not be opened and the car could not be seen from the highway and apparently many cars had passed that spot without knowing anyone was there in trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Butler were on their way to visit friends in Cadillac for Thanksgiving and found the roads so slippery that they decided to get out of their car and investigate just how bad the ice was. It was near the bridge and Mr. Butler heard someone calling and found the car and occupants in the river. Help was summoned and all were removed to Mercy hospital where they were cared for. The parties were enroute to Johannesburg to spend the day with their husbands in a hunting camp at the latter place. The husbands were notified and came and took charge of affairs. The Butlers went without their visit that day, but feel that their timely discovery saved serious suffering and possible casualty.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Edmonds of Flint visited relatives here over the weekend.

A Government bulletin says: "Use of portions of the Hanson state military reservation in the developing of 40 miles of ski trails has been given approval of United States army authorities. CCC enrollees will begin work shortly on an improvement program which is expected to make Grayling's winter sports park one of the finest in the middle west. The parks division of the state department on convention is collaborating with the Central United States Amateur Ski Association in working out specifications of jumps and slalom runs.

Hartwick Pines CCC camp will supply labor, with completion of the program next year."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longdyke and son Junior left for Detroit Sunday after spending several days at the Dream Cabin. Mr. Longdyke terminated his deer hunting when he bagged a skipehorn buck early Saturday.

Old Monarch, famous pine tree which dominates the Hartwick Pines northeast of Grayling, stands unscathed following the recent terrific windstorm, but several hundred forest giants in Michigan state parks were toppled by the force of the gale. State forests also were hit hard. Only now, long after the storm, is the conservation department's parks division able to present a fairly comprehensive picture of damage done. Big trees in Muskegon, Ludington, Interlochen, Onaway and Wilderness state parks suffered in the storm which buffeted the entire east shore of Lake Michigan. Far inland, the towering Hartwick Pines — last sizable stand of virgin pine in the lower peninsula — bent beneath the storm's fury. Three hundred pines in Hartwick Pines state park may be down, but several weeks more will be required to cruise the park areas and to mark the locations of all fallen trees. All down timber will be salvaged.

Robert Herbinson of M.S.C., Lansing, spent the weekend visiting at his home here.

Harry Coe of Flint was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Marshall over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hill left Monday to visit their son Robert of Annapolis Military Academy. They with their son plan to attend the Army-Navy football game.

Junior May shot his first buck this year and it was on Thanksgiving morning he was so lucky. During the first week of hunting season he entertained Charles McCullough of Detroit.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Chalker were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Houck of Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vallad and daughter Joanne, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chaitrow of Pinconning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley LaGrow and daughters and Miss Ruth Burrows of Detroit, the latter a student at Wayne University, enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays here guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burrows.

Miss Jean Peterson, who teaches at Bear Lake, and Misses Virginia and Beatrice who attend C.S.T.C., Mt. Pleasant, enjoyed the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Peterson. Other guests at the Peterson home included Mrs. Vern Stewart and daughter Mary Ellen of Vassar.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Joseph for the Thanksgiving holidays were their daughter Mary Jane, son Bill, of Lansing, and the latter's guest, Miss Marion Huntington of Eaton Rapids.

Governor Romney reads the order appointing Colonel William M. Peterson, center, as the new United States Property and Fiscal Officer for the Michigan National Guard. Major General Ronald D. McDonald, The Adjutant General of Michigan, Monday, November 18th, advised the Governor that the Department of the Army and Air Force and the National Guard Bureau had approved the Governor's appointment of the Charlotte officer as the new accountable officer for the more than 100 million dollars worth of Federal property in the Michigan National Guard.

Colonel William M. Peterson, of Charlotte, Monday, November 18th, took charge of more than 100 million dollars worth of National Guard clothing and equipment in Michigan.

The former commander of Detroit's 1st Brigade, 40th Infantry Division, has been formally appointed to the position of United States Property and Fiscal Officer for the Michigan National Guard. Major General Ronald D. McDonald, The Adjutant General of Michigan, Monday advised Governor Romney of Colonel Peterson's appointment by the Departments of the Army and Air Force and the National Guard Bureau.

Colonel Peterson had been nominated for the position by Governor Romney October 17th.

With approval of his appointment, Colonel Peterson becomes the accountable officer for more than 100 million dollars worth of National Guard clothing and equipment in Michigan. General McDonald is the responsible officer.

This property ranges from combat boots and mess kits to about 80 tanks and some 55 jet aircraft. Inventories of all Federal property at the three Michigan Air National Guard bases at Detroit, Battle Creek, and Alpena have been completed, according to General McDonald.

Similarly, inventories of all Federal property at the United States Property and Fiscal Office warehouse in Lansing and the Camp Grayling concentration site are finished.

General McDonald advised Governor Romney that the inventory boards found all property accounts in order, with no shortages in either Army or Air National Guard accounts.

National Guard Regulations require a complete inventory of all Federal property before a new accountable officer takes over.

As Commander-in-Chief of the Michigan National Guard, Governor Romney can order the use of any of the federal property on any state emergency mission.

Colonel Peterson in his new position succeeds the late Colonel Jay I. Nowlin, of Lansing, who died suddenly September 19, 1963.

the Secret of THANKSGIVING

ALL FOR THE CHURCH THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Does the "horn of plenty" make us thankful?

We do not become thankful by our abundance. The spoiled child lavished with gifts is not thankful.

It is not the horn of plenty, but the bigness of our heart that makes us thankful. The blessings God gives are infinite, but we must have the capacity to receive. Like a child who carries a bucket of water from the sea, we can only carry as many blessings as our heart will hold.

The capacity to receive comes through worship and prayer. We go into the presence of God and think deeply about our life. Understanding is awakened. With new eyes, we see our blessings and are grateful. We kneel poor, and rise rich.

Thanksgiving Day brings us a special opportunity for worship and prayer. Isn't this why we want to be in Church with our family? Here we discover the secret of thanksgiving.

Mrs. Harold Hempel's cousin John Karpus brought her an interesting item he ran across in a Duluth newspaper when he was up at his hunting camp near Hiawatha Forest recently. It told of the Michigan State Highway Department having applied for a patent on a device that controls the spreading of chemicals used to melt ice and snow. "It is expected to save the Highway Department several hundred thousand dollars yearly. Michigan has made plans for the unit to be available at no cost to other states, counties and municipalities," Commissioner Mackie said. The hydraulic-operated chemicals spreader was developed by Equipment Specifications Engineer A. J. Karpus, Field Equipment Supervisor William Kuchta and Equipment Inspectors A. Mike Ottosen and Leo Tift. Mr. Karpus is Mrs. Hempel's brother.

Milo Hamler and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hamler of Stanton and Jerry Hornday and son Dick of Battle Creek left last Wednesday after spending a week at Milo's cabin at Pine Ridge to deer hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Latusek and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Latusek of Johannesburg spent Tuesday of last week in Bay City on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McWay and daughter Grace of Jackson came November 13th to spend the rest of the month at the cabin on the Cameron Bridge road, and do some deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sojka and daughter Tanya of Rochester, and his brother and family, the Andrew Sojkas and two children of Turners Falls, Mass., spent the first week of deer season here hunting, and staying at the home of Mrs. Ernest Borchers.

Rex Hunter of Park Forest, Ill., and Dave Johnson of West Virginia spent the first nine days of deer season at the George Stephan cottage on the Ausable, having Ernest Becker of Lansing with them the opening weekend. Mrs. Hunter and children visited Rex's mother, Mrs. Amos Hunter, also spending some time in Traverse City with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilfred Laurent and family. The Laurents were here to hunt and visit Mrs. Hunter the first four days of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Walker returned Saturday from Dallas, Tex., where they had spent a week attending the National Bottlers' convention. The Walkers left here previous to the convention, spending a day with the Lloyd Dendels in Royal Oak, then several days with his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. David Saxon and family in Mayfield, Ky., and another few days at Pine Bluff, Ark., for deer hunting and staying with Mrs. Walker's cousin, the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Richards and family.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Indeed, times have changed since our forefathers observed the first Thanksgiving in this country. Theirs was not always a life of plenty. But they knew how to count their blessings. Life is not completely "roses" for all of us today—yet we do have a lot more to be thankful for. This, of course, is progress. Man-kind's constant search for a better way to make something, a better way to do something; these have made "better things" available to each new generation.

We moderns are somewhat accustomed to being able to get almost anything we want, if we are able to afford it. So, while we are being thankful for the things that we have, we might well, for a moment, consider a vote of thanks for the folks who cater to our needs.

The established merchant is in business to make a living—but he provides a needed service. He anticipates our needs and makes available to us the things we want—when we want them.

When Buick builds a LeSabre -- Buick builds a high-priced car, and puts a low price on it.

Lots of cars are in LeSabre's price class, but that's where the resemblance ends. For instance: Does anybody else in LeSabre's class treat you to that gentle Buick ride or impressive Buick performance and new gas economy? No. And who else gives you 15-inch wheels, finned aluminum front brakes, extra cushioning for middle-seat travelers, and separate heat ducts and controls for the rear seat? Right again: Nobody in LeSabre's field but LeSabre. If all this makes you think a LeSabre would look awfully nice in your garage, you should see how nicely it fits a budget. You know who to see about it, of course: your Buick dealer. Who else? Above all, it's a Buick
